FROM PEGGY TO POLLY.

Dearest Polly:

The other day some one sent me a card suggesting that I start a maternal agency. I have not thought great deal about the proposition as yet. It isn't a bad idea. Manly you (the must have been a youth) and only of girls. Yes, there are many eligible girls in Honolulu, and if I promises to find equal nice young men, perhaps—just perhaps.

An army and a navy engagement. One announced and one not yet. The engagement of Miss Lucy Webb (Lieut. Woodfin Jones has caused lot of "I told you so's" and the young design's engagement, with probably more "I told you so's" than the first, is going with—and each blank will probably be the name of another of Honolulu's "fair ones." The girl, however, is an eastern one.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Baldwin are in Honolulu for the next few days. Miss Baldwin arrived from San Francisco in the Wilhelmina. Mrs. Baldwin, who was the popular Ruth Johnston, was always considered beautiful by her schoolmates at Punahou and all those who chanced to see her. If she was beautiful then—well, just better find some more adjectives now!

Miss Katharine Schmidt, the niece of Major and Mrs. P. C. Fauntleroy is at the Pleasanton Hotel. Miss Schmidt is a very striking type and is fast adding to her already large circle of friends. Mary and Hilda von Holt are entertaining at luncheon for her on Wednesday.

Letters have been received from Miss Frances Gibson, who left in the Mauna for the mainland en route to Cumnock, a select school in Southern California, saying that she likes the school and the girls and, having visited the Universal City, has become more determined to take up that line of work. Her friends remember the many successes scored in plays on the campus at Punahou and feel sure of her work. For two years, at least, Miss Gibson will study dramatics at Cumnock.

Carl Low Rolph has written to all her friends in Honolulu saying that she is the happiest girl in the world in her own home and doing her own work. Only, Mrs. Rolph insists upon being her own cook, with results terrifying at times, she confesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. E. White Sutton, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle all left in the Manchuria, and have left a noticeable void in society here. The three matrons are vivacious and popular, and entertain delightfully. Well, one consolation, their return will be something to look forward to. And then, too, they will bring back new ideas for the winter season, which with all the returning society people is bound to be a gay one.

The ukulele seems to be quite the craze on the mainland, especially in the West. In fact, it is a craze everywhere except in Honolulu, its home. Recently the mainland who have been visiting here have brought their "ukes" with them and have taught as much. Especially the girls, whether the Honolulu girls have been otherwise occupied or what, the fact remains that many a girl who comes to Honolulu can play the instrument better than the native. That doesn't seem much, but it does seem rather absurd for strangers to teach us things about our own country. In the University of California there is an ukulele club. Perhaps someone will start one at Punahou Academy or one of the other schools, or perhaps just a coterie of girls will form such a club. It would not mean the barring of other instruments, either, and would at least be something new.

I noticed in one of the Los Angeles papers the other day the picture of a number of the Angel City's maids and matrons in swimming costume, and they were in the knitted style. The picture was taken in the new Los Angeles Athletic Club's new tank, which is for women and children only. The tank is of porcelain, 100 feet long, 32 feet wide, and 10 feet deep. What a wonderful opportunity for the women of that club to learn to swim and dive. As there is absolutely nothing more to say I will close with Love,

PEGGY.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Miss Mary Kingsbury MacKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry MacKay, will be married to Lieut. Edwin Colyer-McNeil, U. S. A., Saturday, October 16, at the country home of her parents on the Shore road, Ray Ridge, N. J. Owing to illness in the family only relatives and close friends will be hidden to the ceremony, which is to be performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Carroll Albertson. Miss Isabel Watts MacKay will be her sister's only attendant, and Henry MacKay, Jr., is the best man. Lieut. McNeil was graduated from West Point in 1907 and is now stationed at Governors Island. His classmate, Lieut. William Henry, a few years ago married Miss Elizabeth MacKay, and it was while serving as usher at the wedding that he first met his fiancée.

The marriage of Miss Christine Marburg, daughter of Theodore Marburg, the former American minister to Belgium, and Mrs. Marburg, and Jonathan A. W. L. Tjarda van Starkenborgh-Schouwer, an attaché of the Netherlands legation in this city, will take place in Baltimore, November 16, in old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church.

Several members of the diplomatic corps will be in the wedding party and the guests will include a number from this city and New York. Following the ceremony there will be a large reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Marburg.

Miss Marburg's fiancé arrived in America at the end of July, since which time he has made his headquarters in New York, making week-end visits to Mr. and Mrs. Marburg at Upper Saratoga.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Frances Tomlin Marburg, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Marburg, and Samuel J. Zeigler, Jr., assistant naval constructor, United States navy. The ceremony will be performed in Philadelphia by the Rev. Clarence Wyatt Blapham at St. Philip's church, September 18, at 6 o'clock.

The bridegroom will be Miss Clara Marburg and Miss Anita Marburg, sisters of the bride, and the flower girl will be her cousin, Miss Caroline Moncure. The best man will be Garland Fulton, U. S. N., and the ushers, Edgar Marburg, Jr., Harold Saunders, U. S. N., Thomas D'Arcy Brophy of Butte, Mont., Richard Henry Catlett of Staunton, Va., Eugene Willett Van Court, U. S. N., of New York, and Donald Marion McKee of this city. The bride and bridegroom will leave immediately after the ceremony and will live in Boston for the next two years.

PUNAHOU GALLERY TO BE OPEN ON SUNDAYS

Beginning next Sunday afternoon Cooke Library and Art Gallery will be open on Sundays from 2 to 6 o'clock. At this time visitors will be free to inspect the library and galleries. The Sunday opening will be continued as an experiment during the fall term. In addition to the old masters which have been in the gallery for a long time, new paintings by modern artists, statuary and decorative furniture have been placed in the library. There is also a very fine collection of candlesticks, loaned to the school by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dodge. This collection will also be on exhibition.

HONOLULU GIRL'S CRAFTSMANSHIP GIVES PROMISE OF NEW ART HERE

What Honoluluans of taste and discrimination hall as the nucleus of a new art in Hawaii is a small but not able showing of scarfs, pillow covers and other articles on display at Gurrey's, Port-street, the product of the skilled hands of a Honolulu girl, Miss Jessie Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Shaw.

Those who have seen this display exclaim with delight at the rich, harmonious and striking color effects and not less at the characteristic designs which are faithful copies of authentic tapa designs. Miss Shaw secured the designs from the Bishop museum, where she has put in much careful study, but the craftsmanship necessary to produce them was secured by study and practical work on the mainland.

Miss Shaw has recently finished four years at Columbia, working with Arthur W. Dow, one of the foremost teachers of design. She also worked with Mrs. Gulick, wife of Dr. Luther Gulick, who is president of the organization of "Campfire Girls," designing, decorating and working out the Indian symbolic designs which are most elaborate and interesting. She also had charge of the classes of design in the girl's camp, "Hanoum," at Thetford, Vermont.

Since returning to the islands she has sought to express her art through a local medium—using as a basis the old tapa designs—this she does by means of block printing. This interesting work consists of cutting the designs in relief out of wood, and with these "tools" she works her patterns in harmonious coloring on various fabrics.

White chiffon has been found a very good medium. In this work Miss Shaw is working in conjunction with Mr. Gurrey and together they hope to originate an entirely new Hawaiian handicraft. Some of the things so far turned out are: chiffon scarfs, blocked in the tapa designs, linen tablet runners, pillow covers and hand bags.

Miss Shaw and Mr. Gurrey are also working on a number of interesting holiday cards, also a book, "The Missionary Sewing Circle."

It is a clever little play by Mr. J. A. Wilder, which Miss Shaw is to decorate and Mr. Gurrey will illustrate with his camera.

LITTLE BLACK DOG UP FOR TRIAL WAGS TAIL, COCKS EARS AT JUDGE

Unusual was the interest about the courtroom Friday morning, when the case of Kapena Richard, accused of possessing a ferocious dog which was a public nuisance, was announced in police court. The owner came down the aisle, a vast, shambling man, and behind him, led by a bit of rotten rope, approached the culprit—a little, black dog that stopped behind his master's chair and, looking around the room, wagged his tail with a wave of good fellowship and then lay down to rub his nose with one forepaw, quite oblivious of the fact that he had offended against the laws of men.

"By the unwritten law of dogs," began Chillingworth, with a grin that reflected itself around the courtroom, "every dog is entitled to his bite. However, after the owner has been warned that his dog is a nuisance on his property, and when, a year after that written warning the dog decides to take the bite, then I think the defendant is guilty in the eyes of the law."

Judge R. L. Weaver, the complaining witness declared that the black dog had long carried on a reign of terror in his yard. Here the little dog stopped his scratching long enough to cock his head to one side and examine the judge with a critical eye. Weaver also put his wife and daughter on the stand, and the girl testified that the dog had bitten her once. She showed a pair of light green bloomers with a little puncture where the blood-thirsty animal's fangs had rent the fabric.

"Kapena Richard," said Judge Monarrat, "stand up."

"Up stood Kapena, and at the same time the little black dog bounced to its feet and stood at attention. Whatever its manners are in a garden, its courtroom manner is the height of good breeding."

"Guilty as charged," said Judge Monarrat, "and I fine you"—here the judge coughed—"ten dollars."

And the little black dog hung down its head.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses and do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunate, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optons; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Opton tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye strain, catarrh, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind, or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late. Do not become one of those victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given—adv.
